To all E-news addressees

Please see information below from Alcester Police.

I would also like to bring to your attention a telephone scam that a resident has received, saying the caller, with an Asian accent, was from The Caller Preference Service (to which the resident subscribes to) and was ringing to check that they had not been receiving cold calls. He wanted confirmation of their name and address, asking whether bills were paid by direct debit and to confirm the expiry date of their credit card. At this point the resident hung up.

DUNNINGTON

Burglary. Dunnington Village. Garden shed broken into. Screws removed from the door and lock to gain entry. A chainsaw, two pairs of boots and a reel of cable stolen. Between 4th and 26th March.

SALFORD PRIORS

Suspicious Circumstances. Ban Brook Road, Salford Priors. Male knocked on door to house and was then found walking around to the rear of the property. When challenged he said he was looking to see if the property had a lawn. Male described as white. 5' 3", late 20's. slim build, wearing light coloured clothing and a round backpack. No offences disclosed. 3.30pm Tuesday 28th March.
